Providing documents

We may make a decision on your application without requesting additional information. You should provide us with all the information you feel is relevant.

As you lodged your application online, you should log in to your ImmiAccount to see the documents required for your application.

Do not send us original documents unless we ask for them. If you send copies of your documents, ensure that they are certified copies.

If you provide us with fraudulent documents or claims, this may result in processing delays and your application being refused.

What's next

Your application will be processed.

Find out how long it generally takes to process applications on our website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/processing-times

Update us

You need to tell us about any changes to your details as soon as possible. These changes may affect any answer to a question in your application form including your name, passport, contact details, address and family members.

You must do this in writing and can use Form 1022 Notification of changes in circumstances (Section 104 of the Migration Act 1958), available on our website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms

If you lodged your application online, use your ImmiAccount to provide this information:
www.homeaffairs.gov.au/immiaccount

Failure to notify us of these changes can have serious consequences and even if the visa you have applied for is granted, it may later be cancelled.
